

Energy Usage – Monkton Park

Electricity consumption has now been running slightly below target for several months since the lighting controls problem has been resolved (Jarvis have provided a credit for excess consumption)

Gas consumption below the degree day related target for 5 months, after being above target earlier in the winter.

