Celebrating Age Wiltshire

6. Project summary: (100 words maximum)

Celebrating Age Wiltshire Partnership, led by Wiltshire Music Centre, is in its second year providing a programme of arts/cultural events in 6 Wiltshire communities in libraries and community settings. The Project Development Worker (PDW) has developed a programme of work in each community in consultation with the CEMs, Older People's Champions and existing groups of older people and representatives of charities working with these groups.

The programme involves regular monthly activity in small, local community settings, village halls, library hubs, delivered through a range of arts such as:

- live performance, music, dance, poetry, theatre, presentations
- Participatory work art, pottery, making,
- Longer project work using facilitated words and creativity
- Local history, museum memorabilia and handling collections

The programme is being delivered in partnership with the arts/cultural organisations involved in

How many older people/carers to do you expect to benefit from your project The project aims to reach between 30 - 50 people per event, how ever some events are focused on smaller gro At our launch event in February there were 45 people. We are planning events once a month for 10 months of people to attend each month and experience a range of different arts activities.

How will you encourage volunteering and community involvement?

The Project Development Worker will work with existing voluntary and community groups, including the CEM and OP champion and local charities to identfy how best to access the community in Salisbury.

A steering group of Salisbury older people's services has been established to guide the PDW and older people have been/ will continue to be consulted to decide what sort of activity is to be provided in the monthly sessions.

Volunteers support each event from local organisations, such as Age UK, Salisbury Hospital and the churches and Community Transport have provided transport.

Various venues around the city have been approached to host events and the PDW has connected with other older people's services, such as community cafes, groups and activites to develop and support their promotion.

How will you ensure your project is accessible to everyone (for example: people living with a disability oron low incomes, orvulnerable, orsocially isolated etc.)?

The w ork w ill be offered free for the first two years to ensure that it is accessible to everyone, regardless of ability to pay. In the third year, the community groups can decide either to fundraise to support part of the costs, or to make a small charge for attendance. The activity w ill take place in church halls, libraries, and other community facilities w hich are accessible to older and disabled people. The Project Development Wo w ork w ith community w orkers and groups in each area to identify socially isolated people w ho may be encouraged to take part. The participants will also be able to access free and reduced price tickets for events venues.

How will you work with other community partners?

The Project Development Worker will work with the Community Engagement Managers to understand the community partners in each location. They will then network with these partners to identify community needs and priorities so that a community group can choose the activities that will be offered.

11. Safeguarding

Please tell us about how you will protect and safeguard vulnerable people in your project (You must address all of the following):

- Please provide evidence of your commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of older/vulnerable people and their carers.
- How do you make sure staff and volunteers understand their safeguarding responsibilities?
- Who in your organisation is ultimately responsible for safeguarding?

The Chief Executive Officer at Wiltshire Music Centre will be responsible for safegaurding and the PDW will follow the WMC Safeguarding Policy. All staff and creative leaders running sessions for the Celebrating Age project will be DBS checked. They will be briefed on the policy and trained as appropriate.

WMC is a professional arts organisation with a Creative Learning team delivering music education projects for all ages across the county. As such it is fully committed to safeguarding the young, old and vulnerable people it works with on a year round basis. WMC has been delivering this sort of work for almost 20 years and is very experienced in all aspects of safeguarding.

12. Monitoring your project.

How will you know if your project has been successful? *required field

WMC and the PDW have created a simple evaluation model for the first phase of the project, seeking to identif social impacts and outcomes of taking part in the Celebrating Age activities such as reducing loneliness, increasing social confidence, developing new artistic, cultural or heritage skills and experiencing and increasing social interaction with other people outside the home.	_
The PDW will carry out evaluation at least twice a year with participants and activity leaders which will identify a baseline position and then movement from this every period. In this way it will be possible to identify if the project has successfully achieved the social outcomes sought. The partner organisations will also meet at least twice a year to monitor the progress of the project and assess the impact
