10. Applications for consideration

Application ID	Applicant	Project Proposal	Requested
577	Jacob's Ladder	Play scheme for a year	£4607.00
Project description Short paragraph description of the project: Jacobs Ladder is requesting funding to provide holiday play schemes for young people within Warminster for one full year. It is vital that young people no matter what their needs and abilities can safely access stimulating activities within a supportive and understanding group. Currently there is very little provision for young people with complex needs leaving families without respite and young people without activities friendship and inclusion that they deserve. Teenagers in the local community provide 1-1 support for each young person that attends Jacobs Ladder ensuring that they have days filled with interaction fun and happiness.
Recommendation of the Local Youth Network Management Group It was agreed to award the full amount of £4607.00 towards the project
Conditions apply None – LYF can confirm however, that all relevant safe guarding policies pertaining to the criteria of the Community Youth Grant, have now been received
