Project Description: For the first year ever Salisburys partners are working collaboratively to dress the city with bunting. In previous years it hasnt been collaborative - with different partners dressing different areas for different time periods and with different coloured bunting. The bunting the city used last year is now damaged and looking very tired. We need to purchase new bunting to be able to dress the city this year.

As National Armed Forces Day is being held in Salisbury this year we are suggesting we purchase red white and blue bunting. This bunting can be re-used for next year.
