A vehicle for success was found in the neglected folk music of Wiltshire. This process involves technical instrumental tuition, musical inspiration and opportunities for solo/ group work and performances in both formal and informal settings. In the first project (2009/10) we completed 50 string workshops involving 2,500 young people in schools across Wilts. in part funded by Youth Music. This new project will now build local centres of musical excellence in, and a network connecting, our scattered communities. Wiltshire Music Service have identified schools and ensured that the project will be accessible to young people with limited opportunities. The ongoing activity will bring live music to community halls and centres in the Boad area - building a Wiltshire wide music experience

Superstrings has an excellent record for finding funds for its work. We now need community support and involvement to deliver this new project over the next 18 months. The total project shortfall is being sought from the 4 Area Boards in which the project is to take place - £4,060 from each board (25% of a total of £16,240). The project will ensure a critical mass of musically active young people across E Wilts that will be effective in:

- * focussing activity in the communities that fund the project
- * inspiring and developing the young string musicians involved
- * developing their skills and abilities in ways that cannot be possible via current delivery in schools
- * reaching a broader public in our communities, via performances, demonstrations etc
- * drawing in more children in the phase 2 of the project by developing activities within our schools - using the enthusiasm of the children engaged during phase 1. This will lead to a continuous cycle of contact and success
