'A Festival of Salisbury History'

- 7. Please give a paragraph (or 2) description as to what your project is for/what its aims and objectives are

The 'Festival of Salisbury History' will aim to promote a sense of place and community within the historic medieval city centre of Salisbury. By promoting aspects of popular history in a way that is accessible to all, the Festival will enable residents to identify with the area they live and what has made the community they live in today. Activities will include the production of a magazine (enabling those who are not online to participate), two mock trials in the Guildhall's Oak Court, a series of public lectures, all to be held in accessible buildings and guided walks across the city. The Festival will also promote local businesses and the area they operate in to visitors and residents alike assisting the Salisbury recovery.

The Festival will generate original historical research, promote creative arts with two mock trials and stimulate intellectual debate. It is estimated that approximately 120 people will be involved in various aspects of the productions which will be viewed by approximately 1200 people.
