Project Description: This Quaker Burial ground has been lost to Westbury for many years. Recently there has been determination to restore it as an essential of the towns heritage. The burial ground is believed to date from the early 18th century and contains graves of the Matravers family, who were prominent Quakers and Mill Owners in Westbury. John William Matravers left money in their wills for the funding of a free school for boys and girls - this is now known as Matravers School so this project is particularly relevant to the young people of the town today.
