

Changing Places and Common Ground – Skills Wheel

Preparation for Oral Histories (Equipment, setting, question planning)

Speaking skills

Understanding
of Chronology
and narrative
structure

Understanding
and knowledge of recent history

Ability to listen and give full attention to others

Ability to react to the unexpected
and be flexible in your approach

Place an X on each line to tell us how much skill you have in each of these areas; where for each line, the centre of the circle means 'no skill', the outer ring means you have 'a lot' of skill.