At the meeting of the Police and Crime Panel on 22nd March the OPCC invited the Panel to contribute to work of designing a methodology for assessing the extent of public confidence in Wiltshire Police.

Accordingly this single agenda item meeting was convened to take this forward.

The wide-ranging discussion covered: police visibility; confidence vs satisfaction; the problems of making a survey truly representative; the need to understand the public's level of confidence in the force etc.

Decisions:

- That Emily Higson would research existing work on confidence surveys.
- That Cllr Richard Britton would document the three levels of research identified.
- That Cllr Richard Britton would produce draft generic questions.
