Statement Regarding Fire at Grenfell Tower

Seth Why, the Head of Fire Safety for Dorset & Wiltshire FRS issued the following:

Following the tragic incident at Grenfell Tower in London it was thought appropriate to provide clarity on some key areas where questions may be asked from our communities, so that we can ensure that we are delivering a consistent message. Importantly we must also make sure that we do not pre-judge any issues that may arise out of the public enquiry.

Stay Put Strategy

We continue to work with local authorities, developers, and tenants to help ensure that the fire safety arrangements in high rise accommodation is safe and appropriate. The advice provided is based on effective fire safety arrangements that are required, proposed, and then provided in the building – these will include effective compartmentation of the building and suitably protected means of escape.

If there is a fire inside a flat or maisonette our advice is to alert all the people in the flat and leave, closing all doors on the way out. If there is lots of smoke within the flat, residents should crawl along the floor where the air should be clearer. The pre-planned escape plan should then be followed. The stairs rather than the lift should always be used and 999 called as soon as the individual is in a safe place.

If there is a fire elsewhere in the building then the structure of flats – walls, floors and doors– are designed to give appropriate protection. If there is a fire in the another part of the, then it is usually safer to stay in the flat unless the heat or smoke from the fire is having an effect. If someone stays put, they should still immediately call 999 for advice and to ensure that FRS crews have been notified.

This generic evacuation strategy means that the majority of purpose built blocks of flats will not be designed with a common alarm system within the building. Each flat will have their own stand-alone detection and alarm which will not normally be linked to any other area of the block. There are other areas such as undercover car parks which may have a detection and alarm system, but again, will not normally be linked to any other part of the block. Any detectors within the common corridors or staircases are likely to be there to activate any ventilation system but will not be designed to sound an audible warning.

The advice in this statement is part of a preventative approach to helping tenants develop an initial and safe escape plan. Of course, once a 999 call is made and firefighters arrive at the fire, then the advice may be reinforced or changed depending on the nature of the fire and the performance of the particular building.

It is expected that July and August will see an upwards climb of availability as people return to duty and the new recruits will also be available for duty.

The recruits from the recent advertising campaign are working their way through the system and will eventually start to have an impact on the availability.
