Dear Sue

I have seen the Agenda Supplement to the Review taking place on Friday and note that I am again referred to by Louella in an email to you.

Please let me make it clear that I have never received a call from Wetherspoon or any other venue in any connection with Louella's business nor have I spoken with their management at any time regarding this incident.

I heard door staff rumours that an incident had occurred that evening but I only actually heard the detail from Louella herself sometime after.

Regards

Amanda
