Partner Update for Warminster Area Board

Name of Partner: Warminster Town Council

Date of Area Board Meeting: 5 November 2015

Headlines/Key Issues:

- Warminster Civic Trust dissolved
- Remembrance Parade 3pm Sunday 8th November
- Neighbourhood Plan ready for submission to Wiltshire Council
- Christmas Craft Fayre Saturday 28th November
- Christmas Lights Switch on and Lantern Parade Saturday 28th November
- Free parking in all Wiltshire Council pay-and-display car parks for Christmas Market and Christmas Lights switch-on Saturday 28th November.

Projects:
- Christmas brochure posted to all BA12 Warminster addresses, a guide to Christmas in Warminster, during November.
- Kits available to make Christmas Lanterns for the Switch on. Pick up at the Civic Centre. (while stocks last)

Future Events/Dates for the Diary:

- 8th November: Remembrance Service – 3pm, War Memorial at Portway. Procession leaves Station Road at 2.45pm. Service sheets available in advance from the Civic Centre, library and Community Hub.
- 18th November: Movie Matinee – 45 Years - Tom Courtenay and Charlotte Rampling play a couple (Geoff and Kate) whose celebration of 45 years of marriage is wrecked by the discovery of the body of Geoff's previous lover in an Alpine glacier 50 years after her accidental death. The two leads are exceptional in their depiction of a close relationship now revealed to be not what is seemed. Starts 2pm. £3-50 to include Tea and Biscuits
- 28th November 2015 – Christmas Market 10am – 4-30pm at Warminster Civic Centre. Father Christmas setting up in his grotto. A wide variety of local craftspeople. Performances from local choirs.
- Followed by Christmas Lights Switch on – 5pm – 7-30pm Market Place Warminster closed to host Lantern parade and led by Jamba de Samba plus Live music from local band Jukebox.

Heather Abernethie for Warminster Town Council
13th October 2015

- 9th December: Movie Matinee – Elsa and Fred – This heart-warming and enjoyable story of old-age love stars Shirley MacLaine and Christopher Plummer. Plummer plays crotchety 80 year old Fred who feels his life is over following the death of his wife until he meets Elsa, his new neighbour, who burst into his life like a whirlwind. Starts 2pm. £3-50 to include Tea and Biscuits.