44.1 19/02445/FUL - River Mead House, Church Hill, West Overton, Lockeridge, SN8 4EL

Public Speaking

Huw Roberts spoke in objection to the application.

Dave Snowden spoke in objection to the application.

John Kirkman, Campaign for the Protection of Rural England, spoke in objection to the application.

Chris Powell, agent, spoke in support of the application.

Ruaridh O'Donoghue, Senior Planning Officer, presented a report which recommended that permission be granted for the erection of an agricultural storage building. Key issues included whether the proposed use of the site was accepted in principle, of suitable design, its impact upon the landscape and upon highway safety.

It was stated that the principal of a rural based business in the location was acceptable under planning policy, and that use of the site for a farming contract business was considered acceptable, with the business using being B8, storage, rather than classified as agricultural. Mitigation could be conditioned for any immediate impact upon the landscape, with the effect from further away being very minimal, and the design was considered in keeping with modern storage for farming machinery. Permission could only be refused on highways grounds if there was an unacceptable impact upon highway safety or the cumulative impact upon the road network was considered severe. The site had extant permission for access.

Members of the Committee were then given the opportunity to ask technical questions of the officer.

Members of the public then had the opportunity to present their views to the Committee, as detailed above.

Councillor Laura Mayes, Roundway Division, then made a statement, undertaking the responsibility on behalf of the local unitary division member. She highlighted the concerns expressed by objectors in relation to impact on traffic, parked cars and safety, as well as scale of the building and its suitability.

The Committee then debated the application. The planning policy tests requiring severe impact upon the highways network was raised, and that the highways authority did not believe that threshold had been reached. The principle of the site for such storage was considered, along with other road routes, frequency of use of the site, and whether the scale and design was unacceptable given the area and modern requirements for such storage. The concerns raised regarding on street parking and large vehicles was discussed, but it was not considered there were sufficient grounds for refusal.

At the conclusion of debate, and on the motion of Councillor Mark Connolly, seconded by Councillor Paul Oatway QPM, it was,
