|------------------|----------------------------|
| Member    | Councillor Stephen Andrews |
| Authority | Westbury Town Council      |
| Reference | WC 42/09                   |

On 7 September 2010 the Consideration Sub-Committee of the Standards Committee of Wiltshire Council met to consider an investigation report on a complaint that Councillor Stephen Andrews had failed to comply with Westbury Town Council's Code of Conduct for members.

The complaint was that Councillor Andrews had failed to comply with the statutory requirement in Paragraph 3 (1) of the Code – that you must treat others with respect, and Paragraph 5 of the Code – that you must not conduct yourself in a manner which could reasonably be regarded as bringing your office or authority into disrepute.

Having considered the investigating officer's report and findings, the Consideration Sub-committee accepted the investigator's finding that Councillor Andrews' actions did not amount to a breach of the Code, and that no breach of the Code had occurred.
