Important: Please do not type in paragraphs – This section is limited to 1200 characters only (inclusive of spaces)

Anti social behaviour is a re occurring theme within the Westbury Town Neighbourhood Policing Team. Westbury is often at or near the top of the ASB table when compared to other Wiltshire Towns. Young people state that they have nothing to do in terms of leisure and other activities. Young people will benefit from event by having a safe enviroment to meet , have fun and be free from peer pressure to drink alcohol.

Any other information about your project.

100 + young people are expected and each event affords the opportunity to raise awarness and build relationships between police, other youth organisations and young people who often classed as a hard to reach section of the community.

If your project is intended to continue after the Wiltshire Council funding runs out, how will you continue to fund it?

Support for future events is sealed. This application is for the transport cost for this special event and a further 2

If you were not awarded the full amount requested, what would be the impact on your project?

Absence of transport would greatly affect the numbers attending and would reduce our impact on the young people in the community.

How will you know whether your project has made a difference in the community?

Evidence of success will be continued high levels of attendance at future events and an improved relationship with the Neighbourhood Policing Team
