Evergreen Court, Amesbury

Monday 25 February 2019, 12 – 1.30pm

1. Welcome and introductions	ACTION
2. Notes and matters arising
All notes OK and agreed
3. Update from group attendees – projects / initiatives or news
20 April Easter Egg Hunt – Larkhill event – all 4 regiments & army welfare – Easter egg hunt & 20 questions. This is for families. The project would also allow people to get involved who may be lonely or isolated in the area. The group agreed that £270 from the Health and Wellbeing budget could be allocated to this event, subject to Area Board ratification. Feedback on the Christmas Stonehenge event was excellent. 2 x schools, carols, sweets, Santa and a Silver band. The plan is for this to be a regular event. This is part of Celebrating Age. Dementia Action Alliance is up and running in Amesbury and there are a number of dementia friends also with a Champion. The current Health and Wellbeing group is also the steering group for the DAA. The group agreed that it would be good to have a wider network for the DAA to take expand the Dementia Friendly Communities element. It was agreed to meet in Steeple Langford initially. Tim Mason, Leah Scott, Jan Tidd, Graham Wright, Diane Jenkins and Jacqui Abbott would arrange to meet in Steeple Langford. Tim Mason, Leah Scott, Jan Tidd, Graham Wright, Diane Jenkins to attend meeting Steeple Langford. Dementia Action week this year is 20 – 26 May. It would be good for the group to undertake an event or activity during this week. The theme is inclusion. It was suggested that Alice (harpist) could be involved in an event Jane informed the group that there was a Community Lunch at Evergreen Court - £8.00 for 3 courses with possible transport and the hopper bus was available also. There are places for a maximum of f 40. 20th March is the first date and then on 3rd Weds of every month. These lunches were important in tackling loneliness and isolation and helping Evergreen Court to become part of the wider community and help the residents to feel welcome. Foodbank A discussion took part regarding the Foodbank and possible extension to Durrington. Good contacts would be Radian and Evergreen Court. The foodbank in Amesbury was in the community shop which worked well. Other activities could involve Anybody Can Cook (Eamon McClelland)	1.JA/GW to take to the Area Board 2.GW to provide publicity and JA help publicise 3.Tim Mason & Leah Scott to arrange meeting 4. All to action

Foodbank – where to access cheaper meals – ½ term holiday clubs. Eat Well, Spend less. Contact Graham re: Chamber of Commerce. Durrington - link with churches, possible new food bank. It would be useful to have more referrers for foodbank The group would like to see a specific meeting for Foodbank to include Radian. Hopper Service Graham updated the meeting regarding the Hopper Service. This would be reviewing its route and there would be a new bus. Social Enterprise Event Rotary has linked up with the School for Social Enterprise to put on an event at Stonehenge – Unpacking Social Enterprise. This will be at the Stonehenge Visitors Centre on 1 April. Men’s Shed The Group would like to see a Men’s Shed set up in Amesbury and Fred said there were possible premises next to the Sports Centre.	5.Graham and Maria to set up 6.All to publicise 7.
