52	Review of Area Board Arrangements Ros Griffiths – Community Engagement Manager outlined the Area Board review and the changes in the grants criteria. Area Board Review That the Area Board model was introduced in 2009 and had delivered significant progress to develop stronger, more resilient and connected communities since its inception. That the overall objectives of the Area Boards remain consistent today however, in an operating model more than 12 years old it was natural that certain elements were subject of review and refresh to ensure they were meeting the current needs of local communities. That the aspiration of the review was to build on the excellent practice and evident success of the Area Boards and to address areas where there was inconsistency in practice and approach. That the number of boards, overall format, structure and local autonomy were not part of the review. That a period of research, analysis and review of data between the Cabinet Member, Portfolio Holder and key Officers had been carried out. That an Overview and Scrutiny process followed between January – March 2022, had resulted in 24 recommendations. These were adopted into a single member decision paper on Area Board arrangements which was ratified on the 6 May 2022.

	See below, weblink for the 2022 Area Board handbook https://www.wiltshire.gov.uk/media/9182/Area-Board-Handbook-2022/pdf/Area_Boards_Handbook_2022.pdf?m=637878906465170000 Changes in the Grants Criteria That funding was available to voluntary and community sector organisations that could show a need for financial support up to a total of £5,000. Town and Parish councils were eligible to apply for revenue funding, in respect of Youth Grants or Older and Vulnerable Adult Grants, where they were able to show a need for financial support. Matched funding requirement had reduced from £1,000 to £500. That applications must be received at least four weeks before an Area Board. That applications must highlight how they were meeting two aims of WC Business Plan and an Area Board local priority – grant system would reflect this. That an organisation could apply for a maximum of two projects/ bids per annum across all eighteen boards. Each project/ bid could request funding from up to three boards. Cllr Ruth Hopkinson felt that the Corsham Area Board was working well, that the work of the Area Board was to get out and engage the local community.
