Dear Tom,
Re: Old Sarum Community Rooms (OSCR)

I have used the OSCR over the last 2 years for a variety of different projects. The Parent Support Advisers have used the upstairs space for professional supervision on many occasions because the rooms are quiet and there is the opportunity for confidential conversations to take place and yet they are easily accessible to those of us working on the northern side of the city of Salisbury. The rent is reasonable and this is a requirement when funding is limited. Parking is easy too and that makes the OSCR a suitable destination. We have also used the space for group meetings because there is plenty of room and colleagues from Amesbury and Durrington have been able to join us easily. The Parent Support Advisers have also used the OSCR to meet parents who live locally to enable them to have a neutral venue rather than meeting in the parents' homes.

We have also run Parenting Classes at OSCR. The upstairs rooms were sufficiently comfortable for them to allow the participants to relax rather than using a meeting room or class room which would have a more austere atmosphere. Our target audience were also living at Old Sarum and so it was easily accessible for them to attend.

I was also involved with the La Folia project. Again the target participants lived locally and they were able to access an enjoyable and inspirational project on their doorstep.

If you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact me.
Yours sincerely,
Emma Procter
