Statement in Support of Application for Dispensation

The Planning Committee of Landford Parish Council consists of 6 Councillors. A planning application (REF 10/95323) for the use of a house as a day school for pupils aged 2 to 16 has been received by Landford Parish Council for comment from the New Forest National Park Authority. Four of the six Councillors believe that they need to declare pre-judicial interests and this would leave the Committee inquorate.

As one of the above Councillors I have the following interests regarding the above application:

- ① My wife is employed in a part time capacity by the local Nomansland Pre-School.
- ② My wife has just accepted a paid position at the local New Forest School.
- ③ One of my children attends the Nomansland Pre-School.
- ④ Two of my children attend the New Forest School.
- ⑤ The application site is within about 120m of my dwelling place.

As a Councillor and member of the Planning Committee I am seeking dispensation, with respect to the above interests, to discuss and to vote on any matter pertaining to this application both at the forthcoming meeting of the Planning Committee and any subsequent meetings of this Committee.
