Dear Mr Rahaman,

RE: Licensing Act 2003 – Formal Warning
Breach of Premises Licence - Tale of Spice, Malmesbury Road, Chippenham, SN15 1QA

I refer to my accompanied visit on Friday 20th September 2019 with the Home Office Immigration Enforcement Officers. During the visit we discussed various sections of the Licence which were not being met.

- Section 57: (2) The holder of the premises licence must secure that the licence, or a certified copy of it and a list of any relevant mandatory conditions applicable to the licence are kept at the premises. (3) The holder of the premises licence must secure that (a) the summary of the licence or a certified copy of that summary are prominently displayed at the premises.

At the time of inspection there was no Licence Summary on display and you could not find the Premises Licence on site. I advised that both of these are a requirement under the Licensing Act 2003.

- Section 33: The holder of a premises licence must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, notify the relevant licencing authority of any change in his name or address.

During the inspection you informed me the address we have on the licence is no longer your current address and has not been for some time. If you have not already completed, please urgently apply for a change of address. See application form enclosed.

- It is a mandatory licence condition that 125ML measures are displayed in a menu, price list or other printed material which is available to customers on the premises, at such time this wasn't available.

I must take this opportunity to remind you that the licensing objective, Prevention of Crime and Disorder, includes the prevention of immigration crime including illegal working in licensed premises. The Home Office Immigration Enforcement is a responsible authority under the Licensing Act 2003, with effect from 6 April 2017. Further action may be taken concerning the Premises Licence, based on the outcome of the Home Office Immigration Enforcement team.

It is a legal requirement that all the terms of the Premises Licence are strictly complied with. The maximum penalty for conviction of offences under the Licensing Act 2003 is an unlimited fine and/or 6 months imprisonment.

You must ensure that the above matters are completed as a matter of urgency. Please contact us to acknowledge receipt of this letter and of the actions you have taken. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Emma Batchelor
