Local Priorities & Updates

Priority	Update
Anti-Social Behaviour The Pippin, Calne	Calne Neighbourhood continues to see ASB in the area of The Pippin and Sainsburys. In relation to this a number of young people have been identified who in the main are under 16 years old. Their parents have been spoken to by Police and letters delivered highlighting concerns around their behaviour. Kingsbury Green Academy have also been consulted. The number of reported incidents for the first two weeks had dropped significantly however on 17/11/21 two incidents were reported of eggs being thrown in The Pippin area and also some damage caused to vehicles in Abberd Way. A suspect has been identified for Abberd Way and is currently under investigation. Enhanced patrols by Calne NHT continue in these areas highlighted and for 2 involved in the ASB who are over 18, CPW's are to be issued.
Chaveywell Court	A local resident in Chaveywell Court, Calne who has caused a number of anti-social incidents and disturbances both in and around his residence and Town Council offices. Police are investigating offences and have also worked with Housing to address this. An Emergency Housing Injunction has been authorised by the council and is awaiting service on the individual. Over the past few weeks incidents have dropped off for this individual.
Excess Speed	Excess speed on the Calne area remains a priority which attracts much interest from local residents. Reports are sporadic but Calne Neighbourhood is focusing on the A4 Quemerford and A3102 Oxford Road.
Hare Coarsing, Yatesbury	Hare Coarsing has been reported more frequently with the time of year and longer hours of darkness. Increased patrols taking place and Rural Crime Team are aware.
