I gather a review of the New Inn Licence is about to be undertaken, please accept my comments on this particular public house in Amesbury.

- a. The rowdy nature of the clients that are attracted to this property in the evenings causes considerable anxiety to the general public who might be in the vicinity. Foul language, drunken behaviour, occasional fights, vomit and urine and occasionally defecation appear on the street .

- b. From the Public Safety viewpoint this is an alarming situation and does cause fear and distress when accessing the private homes within close proximity. Noise is also a major factor overall.

- c. I cannot say specifically whether crimes have been committed, I've not witnessed these, however local residents have I believe suffered. Disorder is a common factor towards the evenings end of drinking time.

I highlight these factors not because I wish to see the establishment closed down, but rather to have the facility properly managed and exercising far more rigid control of customers before they become over intoxicated.

I trust you will take these aforementioned factors into full consideration when undertaking your Licencing Review of this establishment.

Yours faithfully,

09 December 2021.

Church Street, Amesbury
