106 Chairman's Announcements

The following announcements were made through the chair:

Executive response to Youth Provision/Area Board Youth Funding Task Group

The Chair read a response to the Youth Provision/Area Board Youth Funding Task Group from

'We have reviewed the recommendations from the Youth provision and Area Board youth funding task group, however, have had insufficient time to complete a comprehensive assessment and response. The recommendations require detailed consideration and input from multiple departments, including legal services regarding the parameters of Area Board grant funding. Additionally, the recommendations need to be considered alongside the new statutory guidance for local authorities' youth provision, which was issued by DCMS on 27 September 2023. A full executive response will be provided for the Children's Select Committee meeting on 24 January 2024.

We understand there is a specific need for a prompt response to the recommendations regarding the existing Area Board grant criteria for youth funding. To respond fully to the task group recommendations, we can confirm that amendments will be made to the current criteria to enable greater flexibility with revenue funding, the aim being to enable an element of continued funding where the project has a plan to become financially sustainable, whilst accepting that year on year funding may not be possible. Currently, it is possible for an organisation to apply for more than two projects within a financial year. The third (and any subsequent) application will be referred by Officers to the grant assessment panel for consideration. The panel is in place to support appropriate enforcement of the criteria, whilst enabling suitable positive community initiatives that require an exception. Any questions regarding the Area Board funding criteria or the role of the Grant Assessment Panel can be referred to Rhys Schell, Service Manager, Engagement and Partnerships.'

107 Public Participation

There was no public participation.

108 Young Carers in Wiltshire

The committee received an update on the current and intended future provision regarding young people in Wiltshire who were providing unpaid care, young carers. Presented by Melanie Nicolaou.

The Council had conducted 18 months of coproduction with young carers across Wiltshire including within schools. The feedback received included a need to improve the identification of young carers and raising awareness among younger people as many did not understand they were included in the young carers bracket. The report set out the actions the council had undertaken and its responsibilities. Special attention was drawn on the need to ensure all plans are age appropriate and therefore a special service certification of 5-25yo had been established.

A new draft strategy was attached and feedback from the committee was welcomed before an intention to tender with a new provider in April 2024.

Debate

The committee reaffirmed that the support the council had given for young carers was really important.

It was clarified that the statistics of how many young carers had been identified and offered support was being sought out through upcoming scrutiny and audits. More work was being done to improve the accessibility and readability of the statistics that were available.

An impending newsletter within schools was highlighted as a measure to raise awareness and improve monitoring. The committee were made aware that young carers could self-refer and no assessment would be needed to access support.

It was clarified that the Council run a lot of the services for carers and had both commissioned and voluntary un-commissioned in support.

It was explained that the upcoming contract tender had been in development for 6 years and lots of time had been spent with carers developing it. Conversation around tendering had been ongoing for over a year and only the “business end” was left.

It was made clear that those who stop caring due to the death of who they had been caring for would still receive support for up to 18 months and a digital offer through an app was also available. The framework for delivery was still being considered.

Issues surrounding power of attorney for young carers was highlighted. Support was needed when family matters still require attention but the young person is not old enough to automatically assume that responsibility.

While praise was given for a more approachable report that gave better detail on support for younger carers, criticism was made at a lack of evidence into how in practise the support would be carried out. Concern was raised over the timeline of tendering and clarification was requested at the upcoming extraordinary meeting of the Childrens Select Committee on 7 December 2023.

Resolved:

- i) To note the plans for intended future provision regarding young carers in Wiltshire.
- ii) To receive an update with details of the service specifications when the strategy has been agreed, to enable the committee to review how the performance framework will operate.

109 Special Educational Needs (SEND) Provision

The committee received a report on SEND (Special Educational Needs and Disability) Place Planning and Provision in Wiltshire. Presented by Melissa Hardwell and Cate Mullen.

The report covered 4 main areas for update:

1. Education Health Care Needs Assessments and EHCPs
2. Overview of the process to create High Needs places.
3. Current High Needs Provision
4. High Needs projects and priorities

The report and PowerPoint presentation can be found in the agenda pack.

There had been continued demand for Education, Health and Care Needs Assessments (EHCNA) in Wiltshire and a continued increase in the number of Education, Health and Care Plans (EHCPs) which are maintained by Wiltshire Council.

In July 2023 Childrens Select Committee was briefed on the delay to the Silverwood Rowde new build, which was currently 40 weeks behind schedule. In September 2023, new learners took their places in temporary accommodation. Although the arrangements were temporary, children and teaching staff were 'delighted' with their new classrooms.

The refurbishment of the Wilton Road site for Salisbury Academy for Inspirational Learning (SAIL) was on track for completion by December 2023.

Following a successful application for DfE wave 3 funding, the Free School for 130 learners with Social Emotional and Mental Health needs was in the early stage of development.

Wiltshire's first secondary resource bases opened from September 2023 at John of Gaunt and Clarendon (Trowbridge). It was a key priority to expand secondary resource base provision to satisfy the demand (from circa 50 children leaving primary resource bases at year 6, every year) and geographical spread.

Despite the challenges of creating High Needs provision, 519 additional places will have been created in the 3 years to July 2024.
