He explained that the group was partnership led, being comprised of a number of organisations including Wiltshire Police, Wiltshire Council and the South West Ambulance Service, concentrating on three key areas of work, engineering, education and enforcement. During the update, points included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Engineering work was primarily carried out by local authorities and Highways England. • There were a number of schemes designed to educate people about road safety including, bikability training for school children and the Safe Drive Stay Alive campaign for year 11s. • Dorset and Wiltshire Fire and Rescue undertook checks on child seats in cars and found that 70 percent were not fitted correctly. • It was stressed that Community Speed Watch was primarily about education and not speed enforcement, although it did help to inform where speed enforcement activity took place.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the Calne area, between July 2020 and 8 May 2024, 367 letters had been sent to drivers and 155 watches had been carried out. • Two traffic surveys had been carried out between January 2022 and 30 April 2024, with neither requiring further action. • Across Wiltshire, between 1 January 2023 and 8 May 2024, 10,667 people had gone on speed awareness courses, 1,450 had received points and 144 had been referred for court action. In the same period 20 people in Calne had been sent on speed awareness courses and one person had received points. • Five more officers had joined the Road Policing Unit. • A joint operation had recently been run on the M4 by Wiltshire Police and other police forces, leading to 12 vehicles being seized in Wiltshire. During the discussion, points included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Area Board thanked Mr Payne for his update and welcomed the additional work being done to combat speeding in the area. • The perception of danger based on the size of vehicles was discussed. • A local driving instructor highlighted the issue of abusive behaviour towards learner drivers. • In response to a query from Isabel McCord from Bremhill Parish Council about what could be done to educate drivers about changes to the Highway Code requiring a gap of five feet when overtaking cyclists at 30mph, Mr Payne offered to speak to them about the challenges on rural roads. He explained that Operation Close Pass was being run to tackle the issue, although they were required to bring in a horse from a neighbouring police force to complete a demonstration. • A Community Speed Watch was usually set up after a traffic survey had been undertaken by Wiltshire Council to identify the level of speeding. • It was possible for Community Speed Watch to be set up in a residential estate if required. • The Chairman followed the Road Policing Unit on X (formerly Twitter).

- Calne Town Council, pg. 81 - 83
 - Pig Parade pg. 85
 - Joseph Priestley's discovery of oxygen, pg. 87

The following partners also provided verbal updates:

Wiltshire Police

Inspector Pete Foster gave an update on behalf of Calne Neighbourhood Police Team. Key points included:

- Members of the neighbourhood team supplemented Wiltshire Road Policing Unit in carrying out speed enforcement activity and had been trained how to use speed guns.
- There had been no personnel changes to the team since the last Area Board meeting.
- The team had carried out 274 engagement events in the past three months, including attending Calne Pride and a Facebook Live event.
- Chief Constable Catherine Roper, Police and Crime Commissioner Philip Wilkinson and Police Community Support Officer Mark Cook had visited the youth club in Calne with the Open Blue Bus and Rise Trust. Chief Constable Roper had been very complementary about the work undertaken as part of the Blue Bus project.
- There had been two recent arrests in Calne for drug supply offences. Four children had become unwell after taking drugs.
- Police cadets had been assisting in proactive operations to purchase vapes and knives. Unfortunately, a number of premises were found to have agreed to sell knives to under-18s and training had been put in place.
- Training had also been provided to hoteliers as part of the Hotel Watch scheme.
- Crime figures in the community area were generally lower than during the same period last year. There had been a slight increase in the number of anti-social behaviour incidents linked to a specific individual, who had been arrested a number of times.
- There had been an increase in car thefts using a keyless system, due to the key signal being copied. It was possible to prevent the signal being copied by purchasing a Faraday Pouch.
- The CCTV van funded by Calne, Chippenham and Corsham Area Boards in 2014 was due to have its CCTV equipment replaced using funding from the Police and Crime Commissioner's office. The new equipment was due to be installed in around a month's time. Once updated, the van would be available for use in the three Area Boards that helped to fund the van and it would also be deployed to support large events, such as football matches, in other areas.

During the discussion, the following points were made:

- The Area Board thanked Inspector Foster for his update.
- When asked about how coming out of special measures was impacting Wiltshire Police day-to-day, Inspector Foster explained that His Majesty's Inspector of Constabulary and Fire and Rescue Services now had greater confidence in the service being provided. Wiltshire Police were in a 'scan phase' with the Chief Constable attending a quarterly scrutiny panel.
- It was the Chief Constable's ambition to make Wiltshire Police an outstanding force and getting out of special measures was only the first stage of the recovery.
- The current crime recording system was introduced two years ago and definitions of burglary had changed to distinguish between their location in the home or in outbuildings. Earlier figures would be unrepresentative of general trends as they were impacted by Covid-19.

Calne Town Council

Alan Hill from Calne Town Council provided the following updates:

- The town council had been working with officers from Wiltshire Council to help to open up access along the footpath from Cherhill View estates to Kingsbury Green Academy.

- There had been a fire at the Hill's facility in Lower Compton.

The Vice-Chairman reported that discussions were being held with Wiltshire Council's Waste Management Team and housing associations about the bins. He also observed that efforts had been made to get funding for the improvement of the area around the river Marden. He noted that Cllr Robert MacNaughton had, along with other volunteers, helped to pull buddleia plants from the riverbank.

The Chairman noted that the fire at Lower Compton had been caused by a battery and that education about fire prevention had been provided by Wiltshire Council. Cllr Ashley O'Neill reported that he had held conversations with officers about the fire on Monday and that Hills mitigated against the risk of fire by separating different types of waste.

- Glenis Ansell from Calne Town Council had been campaigning hard to help drive forward the restoration of the Lansdowne Monument.

Older Person's Champion

Diane Gooch, the Area Board's Older Person's Champion, made the following points:

- The reconnecting group that met every Tuesday had at least 50 members and was oversubscribed. Members of the reconnecting group particularly enjoyed visits from Wiltshire councillors and found that it was a good forum to hear about policy changes.

- Chief Constable Roper would be visiting Calne Reconnecting Group on 1 October.
- A 73-year-old resident had tripped over paving in the Heritage Quarter Car Park on 10 June, at 3:30pm, and had had to wait until 10:30pm for an ambulance. Unsafe Paving was an issue on paths in the town.
- She was in the process of organising the 2024 Wellness Day.

The Area Board passed on its best wishes to the resident that has tripped over. Cllr Tom Rounds noted that he had raised the issue of traffic light waiting times with officers at Wiltshire Council. The red traffic light continued for an additional 10-15 seconds after the green pedestrian crossing light went out to allow for a safe crossing time.

Calne Fairtrade Fortnight

Stan Woods from Fairtrade Calne gave an update about their plans to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of the introduction of the fairtrade mark in the United Kingdom. He reported that Patrick Kaberia, a tea producer from Michimikuru in

Through family hubs, Spurgeons provided parental and family support for children up to 19, or up to 25 with special educational needs. They would run stalls at events to promote their services and work with schools. When asked by Cllr MacNaughton about whether they received referrals from Northlands Surgery and Beversbrook Medical Centre, the charity organiser noted that they did receive referrals from other organisations at a lower level.

He recalled that the junction had been discussed by the LHFIG's predecessor organisation, the Community Area Transport Group (CATG). Cllr Ashley O'Neill explained that the data collected had shown that the junction was deemed to be safer than other junctions along the A3102 where safety improvements were planned. However, he provided reassurance that the junction would remain on the LHFIG agenda, and they would continue to review options.
