The Community Plan was issued in June 2004, following a wide consultation process. A postal survey was sent to over 5500 local residents and the responses clearly showed that one of the community priorities was to provide meeting places for young people.

In May 2004 young people attending the Corsham Youth Festival were also asked for their views, and they too confirmed a wish for a Youth Shelter.

Corsham Police have been consulted and included in the project since its inception, and are in full support.
