Mr Peter James Holden Manton Corner, Bath Road, Marlborough, Wilts SN8 1NR	Footpath	1980- 2004	Once every two weeks for recreation	No	No	Has seen others walking the path.
Dr David Watson 25 West Manton, Manton, Marlborough, Wilts SN8 4HN	Footpath	1981- present	50 to 100 per year for getting to Marlborough Town Centre, shopping and recreation.	No	No	Have walked and occasionally cycled the route then have seen others, parents with pushchairs and people occasionally cycling. Only significant change has been in autumn 2003 when firstly plastic netting was erected at the east end of the path, followed by iron railings obstructing that east end.
Mr. Clyde Nancarrow Ryecroft, Back Lane, Marlborough, Wilts SN8 1JJ	Footpath	1981 to present	3 to 4 times a year for recreation	No	No	Access to this footpath has always been generally known to the people of Marlborough, indeed given the traffic flow along the A4, has always regarded it as something of a refuge for children. A layout which discourages its use would reduce road safety.
