We are a non-profit organisation and welcome people from all walks of life. We provide opportunities for everyone to develop new skills and gain experience. Our pantomimes are accessible to all and are performed annually. Our murder mysteries take place throughout the year, bringing a different kind of entertainment to Calne. Members of our group take part in many of the Calne Community events, often attending in costume opening fetes etc. The equipment that we are now trying to acquire will enable us to further raise our profile within the community and also to become more self sufficient and sustainable.
