The Town Council has produced a management plan for improving the facilities at Neston Recreation Ground and this is part of the stage 2 improvements. The villagers have been consulted since the beginning of the project and a group of volunteers has been meeting regularly with the Council to discuss and decide on the improvements. The current play equipment has been installed for at least ten years and has reached the end of its useful life. The play area is used by all children from the surrounding areas including the local playgroup and uniformed organisations (eg Scouts)
