The art group which has just formed is providing an arts, cultural and social activity open to anybody in the local Cricklade area. It will provide a means for learning and developing art skills in all its forms. An important part of learning is the appraisal of work and the group intends to run 2 exhibitions a year to display artists' work. This will provide a focus for the group and a chance for the wider community to see and get involved in a local cultural activity by visiting the exhibition and discussing the work of artists.

NWDC will not meet future running costs for projects. Please tell us how these will be met in future.

With club membership fees, monthly meeting fees, donations from exhibitions, hanging fees at exhibitions, commissions on sales on paintings.
