The Parish has recently replaced a number of dilapidated stiles on public footpaths. The reaction from members of the parish has been very positive and we now wish to replace the rest. Wiltshire Council kindly donated the gates for this first phase but due to budget constraints we have been told that we shall have to purchase the rest. We plan to cooperate with Marden Parish Council as one of the sites is in their parish. All the labour was supplied by volunteers and the parish council paid for the postcrete to complete the job. Each of the four gates took 4 man hours and another 2 man hours for the single gate.
