This a major social inclusion and rural engagement project across the whole Southern Locality of Wiltshire. 95% of all the users in this project are minorities, particularly those with issues such as elderly, disability, isolation, single parents, Young Carers, Mental Health, rurally isolated children and their families, homeless in transition, Challenging behaviour youth, rural Youth, Brain injured, etc, etc, etc.

The project has developed by direct feedback and public demand.

Please see the enclosed feedback from previous user groups and previous project report.

More than 50 community based workshops will be run leading to a huge street parade just before Christmas.

The growing success of this now annual project and the proven progression of it's inclusion and minority provision has made it one of the most socially engaging community projects in the South of Wiltshire fulfilling many social, educational, volunteering and community needs.

We encourage all rural groups to travel and take part in the across Salisbury City parade (98% success rate) which promotes social intermixing and community understanding.

Media coverage is extensive, feedback is recorded from audience and user groups, photographic records are extensive.
