Number of attendees: 6

This session may be of particular interest for: all councillors

Trainer / Course provider: Andy Carapiet of Media Friendly

Programme

- Introduction to the Media
- Newspapers, radio and television
- What makes the news?
- How to be proactive – turn around blame culture
- How to take control of a media interview
- Putting over your success stories

- Crisis management – how to handle a crisis
- Interview technique
- Preparation
- Appearance, presentation and voice
- How to make the ordinary newsworthy
- The Press Release

Please note

1. Different venues, times and days are proposed when possible to enable as many councillors to attend but we do have to use the one(s) with the most possible attendees.
2. Following a development session the information, if possible, will be made available on the Councillor Development Area on the Intranet.
3. If you are not able to attend a session that you were very interested in and the information cannot be made available on line it may be possible to organise a one-to-one with a relevant officer or a personal development session; if you are interested please contact Marie Gondlach (details below).
4. Pre-booking is essential. If you do not book 3 working days in advance, catering (if applicable) cannot be guaranteed, nor parking or seating at the venue.
5. There is a cost to providing any development event. If you are unable to attend a previously booked course, please let Marie Gondlach know so that the place can be offered to others.
6. Co-opted members, Town and Parish Councillors, Partners and Councillors from neighbouring authorities may be in attendance at some sessions.
