Unitary and parish election nominations announced

The Statement of Persons Nominated for the forthcoming unitary Wiltshire Council elections and parish elections has been published.

The full list of unitary nominations for all 98 divisions in Wiltshire can be downloaded below.

The nominations for the parish council elections have been split into two - contested and uncontested. You can find both lists on our elections pages.

The 2017 unitary and parish council elections will take place on 4 May 2017, and the count will take place on Friday 5 May, with results announced throughout the day.

The deadline to register to vote for these elections is 13 April. Find out more about registering to vote, including postal and proxy votes.

Wiltshire top in the country for best new secondary and primary school places

Wiltshire schools are top in the country for providing the best quality new school places at primary and secondary school level, according to a national report.

The Department for Education (DfE) "scorecard" report puts Wiltshire Council as the top ranking local authority in England for the quality of school places provided.

The report provides data on local authorities' progress on delivering good quality school places. For Wiltshire, 100 percent of new primary school places and secondary school places were created in good or outstanding schools between 2014/15 and 2015/16.
