Please provide a reference/page no. | Bemerton Ward Plan - this project supports the 3 main priorities of the ward plan - reputation, neighbourhood disputes and neighbours. See attached, sections highlighted. | | |

What is the link between your project and other local priorities? e.g. Priorities set by your area board and parish plans.

Community Area Plan - see attached, sections highlighted

A piece of research was carried out by The Young Foundation on Bemerton Heath during the second half of 2010. This project was high-lighted as in need, copy enclosed with relevant section high-lighted.

How did you discover there was a need for your project and how will your project benefit your local community?

Important: Please do not type in paragraphs – This section is limited to 1200 characters only (inclusive of spaces)

Need: Ward Plan priorities and recent Young Foundation research as mentioned above and attached. Police and other agency reports via the Intergency Group, also via residents who attend regularly (Intergency constitution and minutes attached).

Benefits: The activities will be organised by professionals who work in the area, but the groups will actually be facilitated by local resident volunteers. The professionals will engage the facilitators, train them as appropriate and provide ongoing professional support.

Intergenerational work can:

- facilitate a greater understanding between groups, the fostering of positive relationships.
- Address issues of social inclusion by challenging social exclusion to reduce disadvantage.
- Assist in crime prevention strategies and the promotion of community safety by reducing anti social behaviour, diffusing potential confrontation and conflict between groups and addressing the fear of crime.
- Reduce tension between generations
- Provide opportunities for volunteering/voluntary action, building community capacity
- Build better understanding, create a greater sense of trust and mutual responsibility.

Any other information about your project.

If your project is intended to continue after the Wiltshire Council funding runs out, how will you continue to fund it?

It is hoped that residents will be motivated and have the knowledge and expertise to continue working in this way, either seeking funding from other local and national charities, or fund raise themselves, or work with local professionals to encourage them to provide support in this way, having evidence of success.

If you were not awarded the full amount requested, what would be the impact on your project?

It would have to be scaled down considerably.

How will you know whether your project has made a difference in the community?

Monitoring throughout, short, medium and long term. Quantitative and qualitative evidence collected via the groups of residents and Interagency Group.
