Stand as a unitary, town or parish councillor in May

Do you have the desire to help and become involved in your community? Do you have time to give?

Do you like a different challenge every day?

... If so, it might be time for you to stand as a local councillor.

Elections are taking place on 6 May 2021 for Unitary, Town and Parish Councils – it's not too late to be nominated! Unitary Elections

Find out more about what it is like to be a Wiltshire unitary councillor, by visiting Becoming a councillor - Wiltshire Council where you will find FAQs, including details of how to manage the role around work commitments. See a video from the Local Government Association about why you should consider standing.

The role can be flexible around existing commitments and unitary councillors are currently paid an allowance of £13,833 per year for spent on the role. A carers allowance is also available to help towards care for a dependent whilst you undertake some council duties, such as attending meetings.

Parish and Town Council elections

A parish councillor is immersed in the local community and it can be a really rewarding role. Find information and videos from parish councillors about their experiences with the National Association of Local Councils Elections — #MakeAChange (nalc.gov.uk), or get in touch with your local parish council.
