

Wiltshire Council
Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education (SACRE)
Constitution and Terms of Reference

Introduction

1. In accordance with the Education Act 1996, Circular 1/94, Religious Education and Collective Worship and Religious Education in English Schools: Non-statutory guidance 2009 (draft), the council, as local authority (LA), has a duty to set up a Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education (SACRE).
2. It is required by law that religious education (RE) is taught in schools to children up to the age of 18 but it is not part of the National Curriculum. Instead RE is a local responsibility. SACRE oversees RE and collective worship on behalf of the LA.
3. SACRE will operate within the law and guidance in force issued by parliament, the courts and the Department for Children, Schools and Families (DCSF). If there is any conflict of interest between this constitution and terms of reference and the law SACRE will comply with the law.

Functions and Responsibilities

4. The broad role of SACRE is to support the effective provision of RE and collective worship in schools. Wiltshire LA will work with the SACRE to monitor and review the existing provision for RE and collective worship.
5. The functions of SACRE are detailed in the s.391 Education Act (as amended). Other responsibilities are outlined in Religious Education in English Schools: Non-statutory guidance 2009 (draft), SACRE and Self Evaluation: A guide OFSTED 2005 and Circular 1/94 Religious Education and Collective Worship. The duties and responsibilities comprise:
 - a. To advise the LA on such matters connected with religious education and collective worship in Wiltshire community schools and foundation and voluntary-aided or voluntary controlled schools without a religious character;
 - b. To monitor the provision and quality of RE taught according to its Agreed Syllabus together with the overall effectiveness of the syllabus;
 - c. To provide advice and support on the effective teaching of the Agreed Syllabus;
 - d. To provide advice to the LA and its schools on methods of teaching, the choice of teaching material and the provision of teacher training;
 - e. To require the LA to set up a statutory conference to review the Agreed Syllabus if, in the opinion of the SACRE, this becomes necessary. This must be reviewed and updated every five years but a majority of representative groups on the SACRE, other than that consisting of persons chosen to represent the LA (Group D), may at any time require a review of the Agreed Syllabus which is currently being used by the LA;

- f. In partnership with the LA, consider whether any changes need to be made to the Agreed Syllabus or in the support offered to schools in the implementation of the Agreed Syllabus, to improve the quality of RE and the learning of pupils;
- g. Offer schools and the LA advice concerning how an existing syllabus can be interpreted so as to fit in with wider changes in education;
- h. To receive and determine whether applications from headteachers, that the requirement for collective worship in community schools to be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character shall not apply to the collective worship provided for some or all of the pupils at that particular school;
- i. To publish an annual report on its work and on actions taken by its representative groups, specifying any matters on which it has advised the LA, broadly describing the nature of that advice, and setting reasons for offering advice on matters which were not referred to it by the LA. This report will be presented to the LA and schools and is to be delivered to the Qualifications and Curriculum Development Agency (QCDA) by the date specified. This report will also be made available to the public. The report should provide at least the information as specified by QCDA.
- j. SACREs are encouraged to develop their own roles working with inter-religious bodies to enhance the important contribution that the study of religion and belief can make to community cohesion and the combating of religious prejudice and discrimination.
- k. The SACRE may offer advice to Wiltshire LA on any matters related to its function as it sees fit.
