Annual Council

14 May 2013

Appointment of Councillors to Committees

Introduction

1. Following on from the decision to formally appoint/re-appoint committees and allocate seats to political groups, the Council must now formally agree the appointment of councillors and substitutes to those Committees in accordance with the scheme of committee places agreed under the last item.

Appointment of Councillors and Substitutes

2. Each political group should state the names of the councillors it wishes to take its allocated places on committees and when those wishes are known, the Council is under a duty to make the appointment of those councillors as soon as practicable. It is a legal requirement however that the Council formally approves the appointment of councillors to committees and therefore it is essential that each political group notifies the Head of Democratic Services of their nominated councillors to serve on committees, preferably before the day of the Council meeting. Group Leaders may also wish to bear in mind the advantages of achieving a geographical spread of appointees particularly for area planning committees.
3. The Constitution currently provides that the Council will appoint substitute councillors to serve on each committee. Each political group is currently entitled to appoint up to three substitutes where it has a councillor on that committee. As with nominations of committee members (see paragraph 2 above) it is a legal requirement that the Council formally approves the appointment of substitute members to committees and therefore it is essential that each political group notifies the Head of Democratic Services of their nominated substitute members to serve on committees, preferably before the day of the Council meeting.
4. The use of the substitute system by councillors has in the past been fairly patchy and a number of meetings have been held with the number of councillors attending well below the maximum size of the committee. Councillors are encouraged to make use of the substitute system. If a councillor finds that they are unable to attend a meeting then they should contact Democratic Services who will record and present your apologies at the meeting. They can also advise on the named substitutes for your political group. The onus is on the councillor to contact the substitute councillor although it would be helpful for you to notify Democratic services as they will report the temporary change to the membership of the committee.

Committees of the Council

5. There are specific issues that need to be considered under the appointment of councillors.
6. The statutory rules regarding senior officers appointments embodied in the Council's Constitution require the Officer Appointments Committee to include at least one member of the Executive.
7. Also the Staffing Policy Committee requires two members of the Cabinet as Cabinet representation is required on its sub-committees by the Council's constitution and the Local Authorities (Standing Orders) (England) Regulations 2001.
8. At its meeting on 24 October 2012, as directed by council, the Standards Committee appointed 4 non-voting co-opted members to serve on the Committee for approximately 12 months until such time as new appointments are made following parish council elections in May 2013. It is proposed, therefore, that the existing co-opted members continue to serve on the Committee for the remaining period until the Council is in a position to make new appointments.
9. As referenced in the previous report on the appointment of committees, the Children's Select Committee must include nominees of the Church of England, the Roman Catholic Church and a number of elected parent governor representatives (historically there have been 3 appointed representatives – one from each school sector). They will be voting members. The Council also has discretion to appoint an unlimited number of co-opted members onto this committee as representatives of children's organisations/agencies (historically this has been on a non-voting basis).
10. Wherever possible the members of Area Planning Committees should be made up of local councillors. These committees however, unless the Council has determined otherwise under the previous item, will still need to be appointed on a politically proportional basis.
11. All unitary councillors representing the electoral divisions covered by an Area Board will be appointed to their relevant area board as set out in Appendix 1 to this report.
